

Dear Demile,

2/4/84.

Many thanks for your letter which Peter & Cora Weiss brought me. These are difficult days for us, and the climate is not so good for the kind of idea we had in mind. However, by good fortune I happened to meet the Secretary for Culture today, and I asked him what he thought of the idea of your doing a monument to honour all those ~~that~~ who had fallen in the struggle in southern Africa. He said he thought it was a very good idea and that they would support it. I asked how, and he said by giving you hospitality while you were here. I think this means that they would look after your accommodation, food etc., and provide you the materials you needed. I asked if they had the capacity to raise
