

Dear Florrie,

Your father asked me to send you this second package. We had already sent some but the address was wrong. We apologize for this. Please send the filled forms back to him. It would be to your advantage if you do so as soon as possible.